Praying For Relief

With the proper kind of advertising Nevada could be made into the foremost state in the entire west. All that is needed is men who are wide awake and have the interest of the state at heart. Wonderful power sites are to be found within the confines of this state, many being superior to sites now being used in eastern manufacturing centers. Nevada has the agricultural possibilities and crops that are considered the standard of perfection have been secured. Nevada also has the mines and ranks at the top of the precious metal producing states.

Instead of the legitimate advertising that would produce results and assist in developing the resources of the state, Nevada is now blessed with an advertising bureau that handles nothing but divorce cases and throughout the east the state is referred to as a place where easy divorces are to be secured.

It is not to be wondered at that decent, law abiding, respectful business men seeking investment do not come to Nevada. They prefer a community where the residents have the courage to insist on decent laws for the protection of their families, and not a locality where the very atmosphere reeks of sensational divorce cases, destroying in the minds of the growing generation the sanctity of the marriage vows.

Nevada's progress will never be considered meteoric as long as the present divorce laws remain on the statute books, and prosperity can only come when a law is enacted that will allow the state to win back its self respect.

Better Sanitation Needed

Two months ago, through a series of editorials, the Bonanza called to mind the necessity of keeping this city clean in order that an epidemic might be averted. It was pointed out that the scraps and refuse that accumulates about the houses in the residence district were not carried away as often as was required, and that the result would be an epidemic of some dangerous disease.

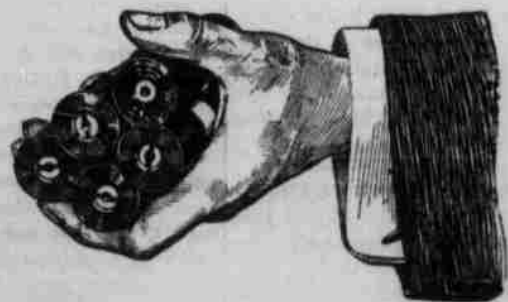

According to current reports there are several cases of typhoid fever to be noted in this city at the present time. In practically every case the source of the disease can be traced to poor sanitary conditions to which attention was directed. Typhoid is contracted through unsanitary conditions, and in order to avert an epidemic proper precautions should be taken at once and the entire town should be thoroughly policed until every vestige of filth has been removed.

More Meetings Needed

The success in securing a gathering of business men and taxpayers, as was witnessed at the mass meeting Thursday night, has never been equaled in the history of Tonopah. With but a few exceptions every business man in Tonopah was present, and aside from the actual business transacted, the meeting resulted in many of the spectators being made acquainted with each other.

It would not be a bad idea if regular monthly mass meetings were called for the purpose of discussing affairs pertaining to the upbuilding of this city. The meetings would result beneficially to all concerned and would also serve to cement the spirit of friendship between all taxpayers.

The Southern Pacific is making a determined effort to attract home seekers to Nevada this year. This same effort should have been taken up several years ago by the state, but it appears to have been a case of sitting idly by and waiting for the other fellow to do the work.

AVIATRIX IS GIVEN DECREE IN RENO COURT

PRETTY PHILADELPHIA WOMAN TELLS COURT HUSBAND FAULTY TO PROVIDE

"Oh my, Friday always was my lucky day!" exclaimed Clara Jane Wildman in Judge French's court this morning as she grasped the hand of Bailiff J. H. Whited, offering his congratulations on Mrs. Wildman securing her decree of divorce from Frederic Collis Wildman. She then smiled a broad smile and left the court room chattering gaily with her attorneys, says the Reno Gazette.

Clara Jane Wildman, a tall, graceful young woman from Philadelphia and New York, came to this city more than six months ago and for several months attended the University of Nevada, where she made a reputation as a linguist. Later she took a fancy for flying and some weeks ago soared into the heavens with Roy Francis at San Francisco. She wanted to fly with the aviator here but he would not take her up. She therefore went to the coast and enjoyed the sensation of flitting through the clouds in a biplane.

She then returned to Reno and this morning she applied for her decree. She testified that she was married at Trinity church in New York City on February 17, 1908, and that her husband deserted her in Philadelphia on August 6, 1910. She also testified that her husband had failed to provide for her for more than a year last past.

Mrs. Wildman declared that she wanted a home but her husband insisted on living at hotels and they quarreled over this. She testified to living most of her married career at the Knickerbocker hotel in New York and the Majestic hotel in Philadelphia. Her husband is a wealthy manufacturer of Philadelphia and is at present in London, where he was served with the divorce papers. He entered an appearance in the case but did not contest it.

Her father is Julius Dippel of New York and is said to be quite wealthy.
